MISCELLANY.

A TRUE INCIDENT.

Not long since I was traveling in the Western States, and called on a worthy man with whom I had business to transact, and as he soon found I resided in his native town, he had many inquiries to make thinking themselves either too thin or corabout his neighbors and friends. During pulent to accord with their beau ideal of who was so kind and gentle to the little ones, hushing them when their plays became too nushing views when their plays became too noisy, and joining occasionally in their sports. A BEAUTIFUL REFLECTION.

Bulwer eloquently says: I cannot believe that earth is man's abiding place. It cannot be that our life is cast up by the ocean of eternity to float a moment upon its waves and then sink into nothingness. Else why is it that the glorious aspirations which leap like angels from our hearts, are forever marching about unsatisfied? Why is that rainbow and clouds come with a beauty that is not of earth, and then pass er destiny that of earth; there is a realm stay in our presence forever.

THE ASSASSIN. IMPORTANT LETTER FROM J. WILKES BOOTH.

HR ACKNOWLEDGES AN INTENTION TO COMMIT A DESPERATE DEED.

AN IMMORTALITY OF INFAMY SECURED.

[From the Philadelphia Inquirer.] The following verbatim copy of a letter n writing, which is the hand writing of ohn Wilkes Booth, the murderer of Mr. incoln, has been furnished us by Hon. William Millward, United States Marshal of the Eastern District of Pennsylvania. was handed over to that officer by John . Clarke, who is a brother-in-law of Mr. by Booth, in a sealed envelope, "for safe keeping," Mr. Clark being ignorant of its contents. In January last Booth called at Mr. Clarke's house, asked for the package, and it was given up to him. It is now supposed that at that time he took out the paper and added to it his signature, which appears to be in different ink from that used in the body of the letter, and also from the language employed could not have the motives of this call. What is your desire?

I have many friends and everything to make me happy, where my profession alone has gained me an income of more than twenty thousand dollars oome of more than twenty thousand dollars a year, and where my great personal ambition in my profession has such a great field for labor. On the other hand, the South have never bestowed upon me one kind word; a place now where I have no friends except beneath the sod; a place where I must either become a private soldier or a beggar. To give up all of the former for the love so dearly (although they so widely differ with ane in opinion) seems insane; but God is my judge. I love justice more than I do a country that discouns it; more than I do a country that discouns it; more than fame and wealth; more (ileaven pardon me if wrong) more than a happy home. I have never been upon a battle field; but O, my countrymen, could you all but see the reality or effects of this horrid war, as I have seen them in serve State (ave Virginia). I know you would think like me, and would pray the Almighity to create in the Northern mind a sense of right and justice (even should it possess no sensoning of mercy), and that He would dry up this sea of blood between us, which is daily growing wider. Alas! poor country, is she to meet her threatened doom? Four years ago, I would have given a thousand lives to see her remain (as I had always known her) powerful and unbroken. And even now I would and unbroken. And even now I would hold my life as naught, to see her what she hold my lite as naught, to see nor what ane was. O my friends, if the fearful scenes of the past four years had never been enacted, or if what has been had been but a frightful dream, from which we could now awake, with what overflowing hearts could we bless our God and pray for his continued favor. How I have loved the old flag can never now S. Clarke, who is a brother-in-law of Mr. Booth. The history connected with it is somewhat peculiar. In November, 1864, the paper was deposited with Mr. Clarke by Booth, in a sealed envelope, "for safe and hearing of the bloody deeds of which she and hearing of the bloody deeds of which she has been made the emblem, and would shudder to think how changed she has grown. O haw I have longed to see her break from the mist of blood and death that circles round her folds, spoiling her beauty and tarnishing her honor. But no, day by day has she been drayged deeper and deeper into cruelty and oppression, till now (in my eyes) her once bright red stripes look like bloody gashes on the face of Heaven. I look now upon my early admiration of her glories as a dream. My love (as things stand to-day), is for the South alone. Nor do I deem it a dishonor in attempting to make for her a prisoner of this man, to want she owes so much of misery. If success attends owes so much of misery. If success attends me, I go penniless to her side. They say she has found that "last ditch" which the North have so long derided, and been endeavoring to force her in, forgetting they are our brothers, and that it's impolitic to good an enemy to mediant goad an enemy to madness. Should I reach her in safety and find it true, I will

NEWS FROM BICHMOND. THE ASSASSINATION OF PRESIDENT LINCOLN. The Whig, after expressing its detestation of the murder of the President, adds: The people of the South will turn with loathing and horror from this act of murder. Nothing in the Southern character is in sympathy with such a deed. The most relentless and inexorable passion ever charged against a Southern duelist never led to acts of cowardly, stealthy murder.— In all the fearful scenes of the war, now passing away, when the most envenomed hatreds have been roused, no secret assassinstions, no poisonings, no unfair and cru-

Eruptions, Pimples, Blotchos, Pustules, Ulcers, Sores, and all Diseases of the Skin.

From Rev. Robt. Stratton, Bristol, England.

"I only do my duty be you and the public, when I add my testimony to that you publish of the medicinal virtues of your Sausapamilla. My duspiter, aged ten, had an afflicting lumor in her cars, eyes, and hair for years, which we were unable to cure until we tried your Sausapamilla. She has been well for some mouths."

From Mrs. June E. Rive, a well-known gual much.

From Mrs. Jame E. Rice, a well-known and muchelegemething of Denviralle, Copp May Co. N. J. "My daughter has suffered for a year past with a strolutions cruption, which was very troublesome. Nothing afforded any relief until we tried your Saraaparilla, which soon completely cured her." From Charles P. Gage, Eag., of the widely known Gage, Murray J. Co., meanfacturers of enamelled papers in Noshina. N. H. "I had for several years a very troublesome known in my face, which grove constantly worse until it disfigured my features and became an intolurable affliction. I tried almost every thing a marcould of both advice and medicine, but without any relief whater, until I tool your Sarsaramit it. It immediately made my features and severe with the form time; but in a few weeks the new skin began to form under the blotches, and continued until my face is as smooth as any body a and I am without any symptoms of the disease that I know of. I enjoy perfect benith, and without a doubt over it to your sales uralities."

From Dr. Rolt. Sacin, Houston St., New York.

"Dn. Avin. I seldom fail to remove Eruptions and Scrofidous Sores by the persevering use of your SAPSAPARILLA, and I have just now cured an attack of Mahyanat Erysipelas with it. No alterative we possess equals the Sants ArantiLla you have supplied to the profession as well as to the people."

From J. E. Johnston, Esq., Fulseman, Ohio.

"For twelve years, I had the yellow Erysipelas on my right arm, during which time I tried all the elebrated physicians I could reach, and took hundreds of dollars worth of medicines. The afters were so bad that the cords became visible, and the doctors decided that my arm must be amputated. I began taking your SansarAntila. Together they have cured me. I sun now as well and sound as any body, licing in a public place, my case is known to every body in this community, and excites the wonder of all."

From Hon. Henry Monro, M. P. P., of Newcastle, C. W., a leading member of the Canadian Parliament.
"I have used your SARSAPARILLA in my family, or general debility, and for purifying the blood, for general debilin, and for purifying the with very beneficial results, and feel confidencementing it to the afflicted,"

St. Anthony's Fire, Rose, Salt Rheum, Scald Head, Sore Eyes.

From Harvy Sickler, Lsg., the able editor of the Tunkhamook Democrat, Pennsylvania.

Our only child, about three years of age, was attacked by plunples on his forchead. They Landly spread until they formed a loathsome and viminut sore, which covered his face, and actually blunded his eyes for some days. A skilling physician applied his apparent effect. For afficen days we guarded his lands, lest with them he should tear open the featuring and corrupt wound which cover of his whole face. Having trace every thing clee we had any hope from, we began giving your "MSARAHILLA, and applying the loide of potash form, as you direct. The sore began to heal when we had given the first bottle, and was well when we had fine his the second. The child's cylashes, which had congout, grew again, and he is now as healthy and the an any other. The whole neighborhood predicted that the child must die."

Leucorrhosa, Whites, Female Weakness, are generally produced by internal Serofadous I terration, and are very often cured by the alterative effect of this Sansaparitis. Some cases require, however, m aid of the Sansaparitis. A some cases require, however, m aid of the Sansaparitis, the skilled application of local remedies.

From the vell-known and relatify celebrated Dr. Jacob Marrill, of Cincinnati.

"I have found your Sansaparitis an excellent alterative in diseases of females. Many cases of Irregularity, Leucorrhosa, Internal Lecration, and local delility, arising from the serofalous distincis, have yielded to it, and there are few that do not, when its effect is properly aided by local treatment."

A lody, unwilling to allow the publication of her A lady, unwilling to allow the publication of her name, writes.

"My daughter and myself have been cured of a very debitiating Lemourhest of long standing, by two bottles of your SARSEVARILA."

Rheumatism, Gout, Liver Complaint, Dys. pepsia, Heart Disages, Nouralgia, when caused by Screenia in the system, are rapelly cured by this Ext. SARSAPARILIA.

CATHARTIC PILLS possess so many advantages over the other purgatives in the market, and their superior virtues are so universally known, that we need not do more than to assure the public their quality is maintained equal to the best it ever has been, and that they may be depended on to do all that they have ever done.
